

(5) To the bequest of $100 to the President of the Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Westminster, Carroll Co., Md., and to the bequest of $500 to Blue Ridge College, New Windsor, Md., contained in the last will and testament and the First and Second codicils thereto of Laura V. Englar, late of Carroll Co., deceased.

To a conveyance by certain Trustees and of gifts made by Elizabeth Cassell and her sister Lydia Cassell, both late of Carroll Co., deceased, and to certain bequests in the last will and testament and codicils of the said Elizabeth Cassell and Lydia Cassell, for the use and benefit of "The Cassell Home for the Aged," a religious corporation, for the aged Protestant persons of Westminster, and other aged persons of the Methodist Episcopal Church Living beyond Westminster, and thereupon the said John D. Nicodemus and others, Trustees, by their deed dated March 24, 1917, and duly recorded among the Land Records of Carroll Co., in Liber E. O. C., No. 131 folio 140 &c., conveyed said property to said corporation; and whereas, Elizabeth Cassell and her sister Lydia Cassell in their lifetime gave $10,000 in bonds to the said Cassell Home for the Aged, and placed them in the custody of its agent Frank R. Cassell of Westminster, Md.; the surviving sister, built and established a house or home which is now in full operation, and receiving and caring for aged persons at Westminster, Md., and whereas, the said Elizabeth Cassell by a codicil to her last will and testament duly admitted to probate by the Orphans' Court of Carroll Co., on Nov. 5, 1917, and recorded among its Will records in Liber No. 12, folio 136 &c., bequeathed $5,000 to John D. Nicodemus and other Trustees for the benefit of said The Cassell Home for the Aged and its corporate purposes when it became operative; and the said Lydia Cassell by the first, second and third codicils of her last will and testament, said codicils and last will and testament being duly admitted to probate by the Orphans' Court of Carroll Co., on the 31st day of August 1925, and recorded among its will Records in Liber W. F. B. No. 13 folio 167 &c.

To the bequest of two-fifteenths of the residue of her estate to the Trustees for the Cassell Home for the Aged as set forth in the Second Codicil of the said last will and testament of said Lydia Cassell, deceased, duly admitted to probate and of record as aforesaid.

To the bequest of one-fifteenth of the residue of her estate to the Trustees for the Cassell Home for the Aged as set forth in the Third Codicil of last will and testament of said Lydia Cassell, deceased, duly admitted to probate and recorded as aforesaid.